OBIT:

Died Last Wednesday

Mrs. Andrew F. Welton, a resident of Delavan for five months past, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E.W. Ringo, in the south part of the city at noon last Wednesday, October 15th. Her final illness dated from only the Saturday preceding. The maiden name of the deceased was Mary J. Ray, and she was born in Ohio, March 17, 1847. With her parents she came to Illinois when she was a child of five years, the family settling in Moultrie county. Her marriage to Andrew F. Welton occurred Jan. 29th, 1863. They were the parents of nine children, of whom six survive, namely Mrs. Ringo, of this city, Edward and Otto Welton, of Decatur; James Welton, of Mattoon; Millard Welton, of Paris, and Mrs. Lettie Florey of Niles, Mich. Her husband also survives her. Mr. and Mrs. Welton came to Delavan five month ago and made their home with their daughter.

The funeral was held from the Ringo home Friday afternoon at three o'clock, services being conducted at that hour by Dr. Silvius, pastor of the Presbyterian church. A quartette composed of Misses Verniece Stone and Eleanor Beatty and Messrs. Elmer Mitchell and Logan Unland sang. Interment was in Prairie Rest. The pall bearers were Messrs. James N. Hall, George Jenike, John Day, ? Rollo and John McDowell, ? Alexander.
